

Henry Rossi & Co., LLP

June 10, 2026 – Henry Rossi & Company, LLP (“Henry Rossi”) is issuing notice of a recent event that may impact the security of information related to certain individuals. We are providing information about the event, the steps we have taken in response, and resources available to individuals to help protect information from possible misuse, should they feel it is appropriate to do so.

Henry Rossi performs financial statement audits, including for Steamfitters Local #449 Medical & Benefit Fund. We are providing this notice on behalf of Steamfitters Local #449 Medical & Benefit Fund.

What Happened. On January 18, 2026, Henry Rossi learned of anomalous activity within our environment. We immediately launched an investigation, with the assistance of third-party forensic specialists, to determine the nature and scope of the activity. Our investigation determined that our environment was subject to unauthorized access on January 17, 2026 and January 18, 2026, and certain files were accessed by the unauthorized actor. Upon completion of the forensic investigation, we conducted an internal review of those files to determine whether they contained any sensitive information. We completed this review on April 3, 2026, at which time we determined sensitive information was contained within the impacted files. We then provided notice to Steamfitters Local #449 Medical & Benefit Fund and offered to provide notice on the Fund’s behalf. After receiving a request to do so, Henry Rossi is notifying all potentially impacted individuals affiliated with Steamfitters Local #449 Medical & Benefit Fund.

What Information Was Affected. Henry Rossi determined that the following information related to individuals was located in the impacted audit files: certain individuals’ full name, Social Security number, and date of birth.

What We Are Doing. We take this event and information security very seriously. Upon learning of this event, we launched an investigation and assessed the security of Henry Rossi’s environment. As part of our ongoing commitment to information security, we are also reviewing our existing policies and procedures and implementing additional administrative and technical safeguards to further secure the information in our care. We are providing notice of the event to potentially impacted individuals via this website posting and by issuing notice to the media. We are also notifying certain government regulators, as required.

What Affected Individuals Can Do. Individuals are encouraged to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing account statements, credit reports, and explanations of benefits for unusual activity and to detect errors. Any suspicious activity should be promptly reported to the appropriate health care provider, insurance company, or financial institution. Additional information can be found below in the Steps You Can Take to Further Protect Personal Information.

For More Information. If you believe you are potentially affected by this event and have additional questions, please call 933-918-5956, Monday - Friday, from 9:00 am - 9:00 p.m. Eastern Time (excluding major U.S. holidays).

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order a free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. Consumers may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of their credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a one (1)-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If consumers are the victim of identity theft, they are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should consumers wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in a consumer’s name without consent. However, consumers should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in their credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application they make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, consumers cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on their credit report. To request a credit freeze, individuals may need to provide some or all of the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if they are a victim of identity theft.

Should consumers wish to place a credit freeze or fraud alert, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Additional Information

Consumers may further educate themselves regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps they can take to protect your personal information by contacting the consumer reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or their state Attorney General. The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. Consumers can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. Consumers have the right to file a police report if they ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, consumers will likely need to provide some proof that they have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and the relevant state Attorney General. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.

For District of Columbia residents, the District of Columbia Attorney General may be contacted at: 400 6th Street, NW, Washington, D.C. 20001; (202) 442-9828; and oag.dc.gov.

For New Mexico residents, consumers have rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, such as the right to be told if information in their credit file has been used against them, the right to know what is in their credit file, the right to ask for their credit score, and the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. Further, pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, the consumer reporting bureaus must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information; consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information; access to consumers' files is limited; consumers must give consent for credit reports to be provided to employers; consumers may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance based on information in their credit report; and consumers may seek damages from violators. Consumers may have additional rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act not summarized here. Identity theft victims and active-duty military personnel have specific additional rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act. We encourage consumers to review their rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act by visiting www.consumerfinance.gov/f/201504\_cfpb\_summary\_your-rights-under-fcra.pdf, or by writing Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.
